

Alliance Bank Notice to Applicants and Employees who are Veterans and Individuals with Disabilities

It is the policy of Alliance Bank to recruit, hire, train and promote, into all job classifications, the most qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, sexual orientation, disability, or protected veteran status. Also employment and promotional decisions will be based on valid job requirements and by utilizing reasonable standards.

Terri Lorenz, Human Resource Manager, at 608-248-2236, is the designated EEO Coordinator at the company. The EEO Coordinator's responsibility is to implement and to audit and monitor adherence to this policy. Any employees or applicants with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor or the EEO Coordinator. Employees and applicants can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal, harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination because they: (1) file a complaint with Alliance Bank or with federal, state, or local agencies; (2) assist or participate in any investigation, compliance review, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of any federal, state, or local equal employment opportunity or affirmative action statute; (3) oppose any act or practice made unlawful by federal, state, or local law requiring equal employment opportunity or affirmative action; or (4) exercise any other employment right protected by federal, state, or local law or its implementing regulations.

Todd Ness, CEO, is committed to all of the above objectives of equal employment opportunity and expects the cooperation and participation of all employees of the company in achieving these objectives.
